

Health & Art, in the Community

By Miriam King

The Bradford West Gwillimbury & District Community Foundation presents its 2nd "Rooted in Community" fundraiser - this time, an evening of Art and Health at the Bradford Public Library, 425 Holland St. West, on Monday, November 28, from 6:30 to 9 p.m.

Hear an expert 5-person panel discuss the topic, Health Care Support: Are you Ready? - the range of care and services available within the community, including home-care options.

Susan Steeles of Southlake Regional Health Centre's Outreach program, CHATS (Community & Home Assistance to Seniors) representative Linda Ind, Cindy Dodd of the CCAC (Community Care Access Centre), Specialty Care Bradford Valley Long Term Care Centre rep Kathy Wheeler, and Tina Hamilton of St. Elizabeth Health Care will provide information, and answer questions.

The evening is also about fun, and fundraising. There will be a Silent Auction of artwork generously donated by 15 of the artists who participated in this year's BWG Studio Art Tour - great Italian food catered by Rosa's Culinary Delights - and refreshments and door prizes.

Tickets are only $25 per person, and will benefit the BWG Community Foundation, which is building an endowment fund that will support community activities and organizations, in perpetuity. Tickets are available at The Bradford Print Shoppe, 905-775-4011; Evans & Evans Law, 905-775-3381, or at the Danube Seniors Leisure Centre, 905-775-0612.

Mikki Nanowski, on the Board of Directors of the Community Foundation, with artwork by Jim Wood, Stella Wadsworth and Karen Lee, donated for the Silent Auction.
